

NTHSDG Teacher Workshop Program

Jn an effort to meet the continuing education needs of teachers, the Guild will provide workshop opportunities for individuals who direct student plays, teach theatre-related courses, or plan arts curriculum. Workshops are five hours in length. The Guild will provide teachers with a certificate of attendance upon completion of the workshop. Please call the guild coordinator at (978) 256-3101 for complete workshop descriptions.

Bethany Nelson will offer the fall workshop entitled “Teacher-in-Role”, an excellent strategy for engaging students. This workshop will demonstrate a variety of uses for the teacher-in-role strategy, in the theatre classroom, core subject classrooms, and to facilitate positive social dynamics in any setting. Structures will include a range of approaches, from 10-minute warm-ups to multi-period structures that result in written or performance products.

A spring workshop will be held on Friday May 2, 2008. Details will be posted when available.

Schedule:

9:00 – 10:00 Registration

10:00 – 3:30 Workshop (including lunch break)

Fees and Method of Payment:

Preregistration is required; fees must be paid in advance and are non-refundable. For Guild members, the fee for either workshop is $100 per participant or $175 for both workshops; for non-Guild members, the fee for either workshop is $175 or $325 for both workshops. The fee includes coffee/pastry and lunch. Registrations postmarked after the deadlines will be assessed a $25.00 late fee. Walk-in registrations will not be accepted. Complete the “Teacher Workshop Registration Form” and mail with check or purchase order to the address listed on the form.
